1900 E. Tigua, Suite B
Kechi, KS 67067

Commission on Peace Officers' Standards and Training

Phone: (316) 832-9906
Email: mike.brown@ks.gov
www.kscpost.gov

Mike Brown, Executive Director

Laura Kelly, Governor

Integrity Bulletin

Volume 24 July 2026

The Kansas Commission on Peace Officers' Standards and Training (KSCPOST) is committed to providing the citizens of Kansas with qualified, trained, ethical, competent, and professional peace officers. It is also dedicated to adopting and enforcing professional standards for certification of peace officers to promote public safety and preserve public trust and confidence.

Anyone reading this Integrity Bulletin will recognize that KSCPOST is active in monitoring the actions of Kansas law enforcement and pursuing certification actions in appropriate cases. Kansas law enforcement officers should review and be thoroughly aware of the Kansas Law Enforcement Training Act (K.S.A. 74- 5601 et seq.) and Kansas Administrative Regulations that regulate officer certifications. Both are available on our website (www.kscpost.gov).

The intent of the bulletin remains the same as when it started. First and foremost, we desire to be transparent and accountable to our communities and stakeholders. Secondly, we need to learn from the mistakes of others.

Case Summaries
Certification Actions taken between January 1, 2026-June 30, 2026

After an investigation by the Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation, an officer was convicted of Sexual Abuse- Child Under 12, a felony.
The officer's certification was revoked for violation of Good Moral Character and Felony Conviction – Sexual abuse of a child under the age of 12.

On November 19, 2024, an officer was arrested and criminally charged with battery. On January 17, 2025, the officer entered a diversion agreement on the battery charge.
The officer was reprimanded for a Misdemeanor Conviction – Battery.

On August 8, 2024, a police department was contacted by the Kansas Department of Children and Families regarding an officer's conduct with a DCF runaway. The investigation into this incident resulted in the officer being charged and found guilty of Aggravated Human Trafficking, Commercial Sexual Exploitation of a Child, and Rape, all felonies.
The officer's certification was revoked for violation of Good Moral Character and Felony Conviction – Aggravated Human Trafficking, Commercial Sexual Exploitation of a Child, and Rape.

As of June 30, 2024, an officer had not completed his 2024 annual training requirement. At the conclusion of the training year, the officer had not completed any of the required 40 training hours. The officer requested an extension to complete his 2024 annual training requirement, which was granted, allowing him until December 8, 2024, to come into compliance. As of December 8, 2024, the officer had still not completed his 2024 training hours. The officer finally completed his 2024 training hours in January of 2025.
The officer was reprimanded for failing to meet and maintain his required annual training hours.

In 2023, an officer self-reported to law enforcement sex crimes against a minor, which triggered an investigation by the Kansas Bureau of Investigation. At the conclusion of the investigation, the officer was charged with Aggravated Indecent Liberties with a child and Rape. The officer later entered guilty pleas to two counts of Attempted Aggravated Sexual Battery, a felony.

The officer's certification was revoked for violation of Good Moral Character and Felony Convictions – 2 counts of Attempted Aggravated Sexual Battery.

In October of 2024, a police department received a report that one of their officers had been stealing food from a Quick Trip store. The investigation showed that on five different occasions between October 15, 2024, and October 18, 2024, the officer had taken food, including pizza, chips, crackers, and an energy drink from the Quick Trip without paying for the items. During the investigation, the officer stated that a Quick Trip manager had given him permission to take the items, however the manager stated that he had not given the officer permission. The officer was criminally charged with five counts of misdemeanor theft and later entered a guilty plea to one count of Disorderly Conduct.

The officer's certification was revoked for violation of Good Moral Character, Misdemeanor Conviction – Disorderly Conduct, and Misdemeanor Conduct – Theft.

In August of 2024, information was received by a police department that an officer was submitting time sheets that included hours he had not worked. The officer's conduct was investigated by the Kansas Bureau of Investigation. The investigation resulted in the officer being criminally charged with forty-seven counts of Unlawful Acts Concerning Computers. The officer later entered no contest pleas to two counts of Unlawful Acts Concerning Computers and was found guilty. Based on the information above, the commission opened an investigation into the officer's conduct. A commission investigator attempted to contact the officer multiple times to schedule an in-person interview, but the officer did not respond to any of the attempts.

The officer's certification was revoked for violation of Good Moral Character, Failure to Cooperate in a Commission Investigation, and Misdemeanor Convictions – 2 counts of Unlawful Acts Concerning Computers.

As of June 30, 2025, an officer had not completed his 2024 annual training requirement. The officer had not completed 37 of the required 40 hours. The officer requested an extension to complete his 2025 annual training requirement, which was granted, allowing him until December 8, 2025, to come into compliance. As of December 8, 2025, the officer had still not completed his 2025 training hours. The officer's training hours were completed by the end of December 2025.

The officer was reprimanded for failing to meet and maintain his required annual training hours.

An officer applied for a job with a police department and was subjected to a polygraph test in the application process. During the polygraph test, the officer was asked if she had used illegal drugs since becoming a certified law enforcement officer. The officer responded, "yes". The officer admitted to smoking marijuana and using weed gummies. She also admitted to using various prescription drugs that were not prescribed to her.

After a hearing, the officer was suspended for violation of Good Moral Character and Unprofessional Conduct – Using a Controlled Substance.

In January of 2024, a police department received a report that an officer had taken property from the department's storage warehouse. The report resulted in an internal investigation and a criminal investigation, which concluded that the officer had engaged in the criminal activity of theft. The officer was criminally charged with misdemeanor theft and entered a diversion agreement on the charge on April 21, 2025. The Commission opened an investigation, but when the commission investigator reached out multiple times to arrange an interview, the officer failed to respond.

The officer's certification was revoked for violation of Good Moral Character, Failure to Cooperate in a Commission Investigation, and Misdemeanor Conviction – Theft.

In July of 2025, during a homicide investigation, a police department received information that an officer had disclosed case details to an acquaintance closely related to the victim. The police department questioned the officer about whether he had communicated with anyone outside the agency about the homicide investigation. The officer repeatedly denied speaking with anyone outside the agency other than his wife. When confronted with evidence of the communication, the officer admitted he lied because he was scared.

The officer's certification was revoked for violation of Good Moral Character and False Statement in Official Communication.

On February 28, 2025, an officer was terminated after an investigation related to the officer's communications and conduct with several high school aged females. Based on the investigation and findings, the Commission opened an investigation into the officer's conduct. A commission investigator contacted the officer on the phone to schedule an interview, but the officer refused to speak to the investigator, indicating he had no desire to remain in law enforcement.

The officer's certification was revoked for Failure to Cooperate in a Commission Investigation.

A police department initiated an investigation after a report was received that officers were falsifying timesheets while working off duty at a Walmart. A six-week audit done by Walmart showed this officer and the other officer signing in for their full shift from 1600 hours and out at 2330 hours. However, the officers would arrive late and leave early. The audit also showed both officers signing in and out for each other. The loss to Walmart for time the officer indicated she worked, but did not, was $308.
The officer's certification was revoked for violation of Good Moral Character and Felony Conduct – Making False Information.

A police department initiated an investigation after a report was received that officers were falsifying timesheets while working off duty at a Walmart. A six-week audit done by Walmart showed this officer and the other officer signing in for their full shift from 1600 hours and out at 2330 hours. However, the officers would arrive late and leave early. The audit also showed both officers signing in and out for each other. The loss to Walmart for time the officer indicated he worked, but did not, was $950. The commission then opened an investigation into the officer's conduct. However, the officer failed to appear for their interview with a commission investigator and did not contact the investigator with an explanation for their absence. Therefore, the officer did not cooperate with the Commission interview.
The officer's certification was revoked for violation of Good Moral Character, Failure to Cooperate in a Commission Investigation, and Felony Conduct – Making False Information.

In June of 2024, an internal investigation by a police department discovered an officer had forged a driver's signature on two Notices to Appear after forgetting to have the driver sign them. The officer was criminally charged with two counts of Forgery, and the officer was convicted of one count of Forgery.
The officer's certification was revoked for violation of Good Moral Character, False Statement in Official Communication, and Felony Conviction – Forgery, a felony.

In September of 2024, a Sheriff's Office conducted an audit of officers' radar logs. An officer was asked to provide his logs, however, explained that his logs were at his home in a safe. The officer was asked two more times to provide his radar logs, and both times indicated he had the logs. The officer eventually provided the logs, but the Sheriff's Office believed the logs to be fraudulent. A review of the log entries showed 13 of the 24 entries occurred on the officer's normal days off. When confronted, the officer admitted he had lied about having the logs and that he had falsified the logs because he was scared. The Commission opened an investigation into the officer's conduct. A Commission Investigator made multiple attempts to contact the officer to arrange an interview, but the officer failed to respond to the investigator. Therefore, the officer did not cooperate with the Commission interview.
The officer's certification was revoked for False Statement in Official Communication and Failure to Cooperate in a Commission Investigation.

On July 30, 2024, a Sheriff's Office received a report than an officer had exchanged nude photos with a 17-year-old female. The report was investigated by the Kansas Bureau of Investigation. The investigation found that the officer met the 17-year-old during an underage drinking call for service, befriended her, and exchanged nude photos with her. The officer was charged with Promoting Obscenity to Minors and later entered a no contest plea, and was found guilty of Promoting Obscenity, a class A misdemeanor. The Commission opened an investigation into the officer's conduct. A Commission Investigator made multiple attempts to contact the officer to arrange an interview, but the officer failed to respond to the investigator. Therefore, the officer did not cooperate with the Commission interview.
The officer's certification was revoked for violation of Good Moral Character, Failure to Cooperate in a Commission Investigation, Exploiting their Law Enforcement Position, and Misdemeanor Conviction – Promoting Obscenity.

A police department investigated a domestic disturbance involving an officer. During the disturbance, the officer acknowledged slapping a cup the mother of his child was drinking from, that resulted in an injury to that person's mouth. The conduct was also observed by a witness. During a Commission interview, the officer admitted to slapping a soda out of the mother of his child's hand because he was upset.

The officer's certification was revoked for Criminal Conduct – Misdemeanor Crime of Domestic Violence.

An officer resigned after an internal investigation related to a crash in his patrol vehicle and the circumstances related to the crash. During the investigation, the officer was untruthful with the police department. Based on this information, the Commission opened an investigation. A Commission Investigator made multiple attempts to contact the officer to arrange an interview, but the officer failed to respond to the investigator. Therefore, the officer did not cooperate with the Commission interview.

Ther officer's certification was revoked for Failure to Cooperate in a Commission Investigation.

In August of 2025, the Commission received a report that an officer was being untruthful on law enforcement applications. In an application for a job at a police department, the officer was asked if he had been accused of domestic violence and he answered "no". On October 10, 2015, a different police department responded to a domestic disturbance involving the officer and his fiancé. Both parties were investigated for domestic battery, but no charges were filed.

The officer was reprimanded for False Statement to Gain Employment.

On August 16, 2025, an officer was assigned to serve civil process paperwork. At the end of his shift, the officer had not served two documents, however, he marked the documents as "NC 08/16/2025", indicating he attempted to serve the documents on August 16, 2025, but did not have contact with anyone at the address. The Sheriff's Office questioned the officer about the documents on August 20, 2025. The officer again indicated he had attempted to serve the documents but didn't have contact with anyone. The officer was confronted with the GPS data from his patrol vehicle showing he had not been to the service address locations. At that point, the officer admitted he had falsified information on the civil process documents and had lied when questioned on August 20, 2025.

The officer's certification was revoked for False Statement in Official Communication.

On May 4, 2024, an officer was assisting another officer in the processing of a DUI suspect. The suspect was extremely intoxicated, uncooperative, and combative. As the officer walked the handcuffed suspect to the restroom, they both stumbled and the suspect fell to the floor. The officer then lifted the suspect off the floor and threw the suspect into the side walls three times with the suspect's head striking the wall each time.

The officer's certification was revoked for violation of Good Moral Character, Unprofessional Conduct – Excessive Force, and Misdemeanor Conduct – Mistreatment of a Confined Person.

In March of 2025, an officer stated that he suffered a back injury and a dislocated shoulder, requiring an MRI and pain medication. As a result, his Sheriff told him he would need a doctor's note before returning to work. The officer provided his Sheriff with a document that had the name of an orthopedic surgeon. The document appeared suspicious to the Sheriff, as it appeared to be a Microsoft Word document with sections cut and pasted onto it. The document also lacked a signature. The Sheriff then called the medical office to verify the authenticity of the document. The medical office told the Sheriff that his officer was not a patient of the office. When the Sheriff confronted the officer with the information provided by the medical office, the officer told him that county policy prohibited him from asking for a doctor's note. The officer later called the Undersheriff and resigned.

The officer's certification was revoked for violation of Good Moral Character and False Statement in Official Communication.

In September of 2024, an officer, while attempting to serve a warrant, disclosed information contained in a criminal history background check to members of the public. The officer was disciplined and required to take additional training related to the release and dissemination of criminal history information.

The officer's certification was censured for Unprofessional Conduct – Disclosing Criminal History Record Information.

As of June 30, 2025, an officer had not completed his annual training requirement. The officer had completed 15 of the required 40 hours. The officer requested an extension to complete his 2025 training requirement, which was granted, allowing him until October 29, 2025, to come into compliance. As of October 29, 2025, the officer had still not completed his 2025 training hours. A review of the officer's central registry documents showed he was previously delinquent in training hours in 2012, 2015, 2016, 2017, 2019, 2023, and 2024.

The officer's certification was revoked for Failure to Complete Annual Training Hours.

On October 14, 2024, an officer was criminally charged with Criminal Damage to Property. On June 12, 2025, the officer entered a guilty plea to an amended charge of Disorderly Conduct.

The officer's certification was reprimanded for Misdemeanor Conviction – Disorderly Conduct.

On December 27, 2024, an officer was criminally charged with Unlawful Sexual Relations, a felony. The officer later entered a guilty plea to the charge and was sentenced on January 26, 2026.

The officer's certification was revoked for violation of Good Moral Character and Felony Conviction – Unlawful Sexual Relations.

On June 17, 2025, June 28, 2025, July 7, 2025, and July 15, 2025, an officer engaged in criminal activity constituting the misdemeanor crimes of Criminal Damage to Property, Disorderly Conduct, and three counts of Violation of a Protection Order. The officer was criminally charged. On December 3, 2025, the officer entered a diversion agreement on the charges.

The officer's certification was revoked for Misdemeanor Conviction – Criminal Damage to Property, Disorderly Conduct, and Violation of a Protection Order.

On December 1, 2024, an officer responded to a domestic violence call. The alleged victim was not at the scene, however the officer later made contact with her by phone. The officer described developing feelings for her over the phone. The officer later began texting the alleged victim via a third-party app at the telephone number he obtained from the report. The officer texted the alleged victim that he was very attracted to her and asked about becoming a "sexual/romantic partner". The officer had never met the alleged victim prior to the call on December 1, 2024.

The officer's certification was revoked for Unprofessional Conduct – Exploiting their Law Enforcement Position.

An officer was criminally charged with Battery for conduct occurring on January 27, 2025. On February 27, 2026, the officer entered a guilty plea to an amended charge of Disorderly Conduct. The officer was sentenced on February 27, 2026.

The officer's certification was reprimanded for Misdemeanor Conviction – Disorderly Conduct.

On April 16, 2024, an officer was criminally charged with Aggravated Indecent Liberties with a Child, Promoting Obscenity to Minors, Aggravated Indecent Liberties with a Child, and Indecent Solicitation of a Child. The officer later entered a guilty plea to Indecent Liberties with a Child, a felony, and was sentenced on January 29, 2026.

The officer's certification was revoked for violation of Good Moral Character and Felony Conviction – Indecent Liberties with a Child.

An officer was criminally charged with two counts of Harassment and one count of Disorderly Conduct for conduct occurring on May 18, 2025. On June 25, 2025, the officer entered guilty pleas to the two Harassment charges, and the Disorderly Conduct charge was dismissed. The officer was sentenced on June 25, 2025.

The officer was reprimanded for Misdemeanor Conviction – Crime constituting Assault.